This property is a hidden gem. From the outside it looks like any normal villa in this quiet urbanisation but as you walk in it opens up into an absolutely enormous property. The south facing garden is beautifully manicured hosting a large heated swimming pool. There is also a separate area to the garden where you will find a walled football pitch (which could be converted into a tennis court should you choose to do so). The actual house comprises of three floors. The ground floor plays host to a very large and bright sitting room with fireplace, a separate dining room and an enormous kitchen with separate utility and laundry room. A stunning marble staircase takes you to the first floor where 4 of the 5 bedrooms can be found. All rooms are extremely large and bright as are the bathrooms. No expense has been spared with the bathrooms with floor to ceiling Italian marble, hand cut especially for this house. All the bedrooms have direct access to a very large terrace that runs the length of the house and overlooks the gardens and pool area. Downstairs in the basement you will find the fifth bedroom and bathroom, a sauna, and a fully functioning bar and "party room" complete with tables and chairs and...
